

Godly Play Teacher Needed for Fall 2018

Godly Play is looking for Teachers starting this fall. Godly Play teaches the children the sacred stories of our Christian faith through the art of storytelling and visual engagement. The children are invited into these sacred stories through the effective Godly Play resources and materials. The authors of the curriculum say, "Godly Play teaches children the art of using Christian language - parable, sacred story, silence and liturgical action - helping them become more fully aware of the mystery of God's presence in their lives. Please give this vital ministry careful consideration and contact Melissa Hamon 281-545-1661 or mhamon@stmarksfortbend.org with any questions.

Kids' Kingdom Teachers Needed for Fall 2018

Kids' Kingdom is looking for additional teachers and assistants starting this fall. Kids' Kingdom is for youth in first through fifth grades. The classes will meet each Sunday from 9:30-10:15. This important ministry operates on a rotating basis so that teachers and assistants are not called upon each week and all lesson plans and materials are provided. It would be necessary to complete the Safeguarding God's Children training, but Melissa Hamon is a trainer and you would not have to go far to complete that requirement. Please give this vital ministry careful consideration and contact Chris Abbott at 281 545-8859 with any questions.

EYC Leader Needed for Fall 2018

EYC is looking for leaders starting this fall. EYC has an active and growing youth group (6th - 12th grade). They meet one or two Sunday's a month, in the afternoon, for fellowship and a time to challenge and encourage each other with topical discussions concerning our faith. It would be necessary to complete the Safeguarding God's Children training, but Melissa Hamon is a trainer and you would not have to go far to complete that requirement. Please give this vital ministry careful consideration and contact Melissa Hamon 281-545-1661 or mhamon@stmarksfortbend.org with any questions.

